information

Eastbourne is one of Britain's most elegant resorts, enjoying a glorious location on the South Coast. Sheltered by the South Downs and the majestic, towering cliffs of Beachy Head, Eastbourne enjoys a mild, sunny climate, which is how it earned the nickname "Suntrap of the South".

Eastbourne is a traditional, unspoilt seaside resort with charm and elegance. The long promenade with its world famous Carpet Gardens are a constant spectacle of beauty and colour and are perfect for a relaxing stroll by the sea. Eastbourne is one of England's gems and is one of the most popular resorts in the country. Our carefully selected excursions to local beauty spots and places of interest will undoubtedly add to the enjoyment of this delightful tour. Eastbourne is everything a high quality British seaside resort should be, this is the place to see and be seen!.
